

The Israeli-American Council (IAC) mourns the brutal murder of Dipu Chandra Das and condemns this horrific act of violence carried out by radical Islamist extremists.

We stand in unwavering solidarity with the Hindu community and with all those who are targeted for their faith, ethnicity, or way of life. Hatred and religious extremism threaten all free societies, and we join our Hindu brothers and sisters in calling for justice, accountability, and united opposition to violence and intolerance.